2010-2011 Elementary and High School Calendar

The Regina Board of Education, at its meeting held October 20, 2009, set the calendar for the 2010-2011 school year. Statutory holidays and the minimum number of days allowed for the winter and spring vacation periods are set by legislation. The 2010-2011 school year calendar is established on the assumption of 197 school days.

PLEASE NOTE: The number of school days in the upcoming school year is set by the Minister of Education, usually in December or January. Should the number of school days be greater or fewer than 197, a revised calendar reflecting the set number of school days will be distributed.
